This is The Infernal Lust Magick Sigil Created by ‘The Magus.’

Incantation: “Love, Lust, Sex, Harmony, and Pride consume me with your power. Give unto me the energy of ultimate spiritual orgasm and the power infused through these words. Bless me now with these sacred infernal words of power through the spiritual alchemy of the philosopher’s stone.”

How to use The Magus Infernal Lust Sigil

This symbol may be activated by drawing or copying this image and reflecting on its magickal properties. You do not have to draw the sigil yourself for it to work and can print out the sigil or use it right on the screen. Speak out loud the five words sealed around the sigil.

Start at the bottom right, touch the image and speak out loud the word “Love” then trace your finger through the inverted pentagram’s line to the second symbol on the bottom left and speak out loud “Lust.” Trace your finger on the next line moving to the top right symbol and speak aloud it’s word “sex.” Trace now your finger through the line of the pentagram and onto the bottom symbol and speak out loud it’s word “Harmony.” Trace your finger now to the top left symbol and speak out loud it’s word “Pride.” Trace your finger back to the bottom right symbol for Love completing the tracing of the pentagram.

Speak then this incantation: “Love, Lust, Sex, Harmony, and Pride consume me with your power. Give unto me the energy of ultimate spiritual orgasm and the power infused through these words. Bless me now with these sacred infernal words of power through the spiritual alchemy of the philosopher’s stone.”

Use this sigil before any practice of sex magick or just for fun before having sex (or masturbation.) This sigil is recommended for use in sex magick in addition to any working with any of these infernal deities: Asmodeus, Asmodai, Azaz’el, Ba’el’ze’bub.

This sigil can be used in addition to any regular infernal or satanic spell by activating it’s power before performing a ritual and will fuse it’s power and energy into said spell.

Use of this sigil will create self empowerment strengthening the magickal power and abilities of any person who uses it as instructed. This may include the empowerment of psychokinetic ability as well as general magickal empowerment. Different people may experience the self empowerment differently.

The sigil needs to be physically present during both it’s tracing and also the speaking of the incantation which activates it’s power. If you are viewing this online this means the sigil should be physically visible on the screen from the moment you trace and activate it’s 5 words to the moment you speak the final incantation activating its power. For this reason the incantation is shown twice, once directly under the sigil so that it is visible on the screen with the incantation present for easier usage, and a second time in the instructions. Tracing of the sigil should take place before reciting the incantation. Note that the 5 words in the incantation are in the same order that the sigil is traced in to activate its power.
